Rick Johnson Retires

WARRENSBURG, MO – Johnson County Fire Protection District Station 4 Captain Rick Johnson is hanging up his turnout gear for the final time this week after serving the District for 40 years. Captain Johnson began his service to the District in 1981 and worked his way through the ranks into his current position of Captain in the District's Station 4 which is located just outside of Knob Noster.

"Captain Johnson has had great influence on numerous members of the fire service throughout his career and has always been a staunch advocate for public service," said District Fire Chief Larry Jennings. "The District appreciates his dedication to serve our organization and community over the past four decades."

Captain Johnson's final day with the District is Thursday, September 30, 2021. He will be officially recognized for his service following the December meeting of the JCFPD Board of Directors.
